

Sew & Tell

June 2023

Last general meeting held May 4, we had a guest, Christine Colbert, from the Comox Valley Hospice Society. She gave a short speech to make us aware of the society's mission and how we, as a quilt guild, may help them.

Including six care beds for those who have a palliative diagnosis, they also provide counselling for the patients, companionship, support groups, educational resources and spiritual/prayer support as well, support groups for the caregivers and the bereaved.

The maximum funding this Society receives from the Federal Gov. is $19,000. Any further funds are secured through fund raising. This is where we come in. Christine attended the Seniors Resources show in Cumberland, in February, at which we also had a table to show-case the CVSHQG. She was quite impressed with all the work we do especially through our Community Quilts program. She approached us with a request to put forward to our membership.

The Hospice Society is celebrating it's 40th anniversary this November. This is also an opportunity for them to fund raise. They have asked us if we would make and donate, decorative heart shaped ornaments which they would hang on a tree and sell to event goers, as keepsakes in memory of passed loved ones. We all have those small pieces of fabric and decorations waiting to be used up and what a perfect opportunity.

The support in the room at the meeting, seemed pretty overwhelming and so we as the guild, shall endeavour to make and donate what we can.

The Hearts are not specific in dimension, design or colour. Average size would be about 5-6". Decorate them tastefully as you see fit. We have batting to stuff them, and the Society will supply ribbon bearing their logo, to string them on for hanging. Some of our members have already started making these hearts as shown at the meeting May 4th.

Once again, Comox Valley Schoolhouse Quilters Guild makes a difference in our community! Yeah team!

Happy Sewing!

BEE DAY

Come join the fun of a quilting bee day. This will be at the guild hall every 4th Thursday of the month. The first was held on November 24th with pattern and fabric supplied by the guild for this project.

Each 4th Thursday a new pattern will be supplied at the guild for you. You can make a block with supplied fabric and then use your own fabric to build a block, perhaps two, one for you and one for the Community Quilts quilt.

Hopefully some of us can do sashing, binding, quilting so that we can present a completed quilt. Patterns will only be supplied on the day at the hall since the intent is to do this together.

Come have some fun, get to know fellow guild members better, perhaps learn a new skill or enhance one.

If you have any questions contact Debbi, Peggy or Janis.

Your president

Not Ugly Just Whimsical !

June 22 - Block of the Month will be Karen Brown's 'Ugly Quilt' pattern

With a difference from our usual Bee blocks - each quilter won't be doing one or two blocks.

Why?

Block construction is done by whacking into a stack of twelve 14 inch squares.

So Quilters will instead take turns working on the same scrappy stack of 12.

There will be 4 or more stacks moving through the room.

Are you curious? Then come join in on June 22 and find out more!

You can bring one or two 14 inch squares which dance with this cheerful child's colour-way.

We will likely create at least four child size flimsies.

From the Library Committee

We are drowning in books!

Our library is a wonderful resource but we now have over 800 titles as well as videos, templates etc., and we do need to downsize.

We plan to spend time this summer going through the items to check which ones have not been circulated much or not at all (not counting Covid times) and we will reduce our inventory.

The shelves are very crowded and we need the space! We will also update our binders creating new cards etc.

To this end – we need all library books etc., back to the hall.

PLEASE RETURN ALL LIBRARY BOOKS
TEMPLATES, AND OTHER ITEMS
BY THURSDAY, JUNE 15TH.

The library will therefore be closed from then through July – it will reopen when the task is complete!

Thank you for your cooperation!

ELECTIONS

Elections are coming soon and the Nomination Committee would love to hear from you. We are looking for interest in Executive Positions including Vice President and President.

Because there are over 100 active members, it's almost impossible for the Nomination Committee to approach each person individually, so if you are the slightest bit interested in becoming more involved with the Executive, or one of the many committees, please touch base with us as soon as possible. We'd love to hear from you.

Remember the Quilt Display in June which is not happening?

Well we live and we learn. Everyone did so much work in preparing for this event and now despite the sad cancellation, we can all breath a sigh of relief and we can entertain ourselves with other activities.

Except for one small detail...

As part of it all the hard workers are the Raffle Basket Wranglers, Sharon Hanson, Terry Hooper and myself, and the other members of the Guild who so graciously donated items to these said baskets. We have Six baskets with a variety of themes, totalling over $2300.00.

A letter has been sent to the businesses who have donated, explaining the change to a one-day event and that we will carry on with the Raffle in order to support our Community Quilts Program.

The license has been submitted and tickets will be printed. The sale of these tickets will take place from May 15, 2023 until June 29, Thursday at the Guild.

We had discussions with the village to assure that we will have two tables located at the hall, on the day of the original show, Saturday June 10. As well we are trying to garner a table to sell during the May Day parade, May 20th from 10 am till 4 pm.

Since these Baskets have become a stand-alone project, without benefit of the show, we will need our members to volunteer to sell these tickets both at the 125th celebration and the May Day parade. As you may also suspect we would like all the members to graciously volunteer to sell tickets on their own time to friends and family.

Let's make this Raffle a major success despite the setback of no show.

Thank you again for all the hard work and interest by all the members

Do You Need a Ride to Guild?

If you need a ride please contact Carol Metner (info on membership list) to arrange a ride. Some of us might not come to guild because of driving conditions or prefer to not drive at night.

Please contact Carol and she will arrange rides.

From Programs:

I have a Celebration to go to at the beginning of June and, because it is in Saskatoon, I thought I would continue a one month holiday from there.

As a result, there will not be a program in June. However, if you have a good 'song and dance routine' or anything else that you think might keep the masses amused at the June meeting or at the final potluck supper, please feel free to do so. It is probably a good idea to check with the Executive first.

I think it has worked out well having a Part time Temporary Program Person. Keep the ideas coming Everyone, for Programs in the 2023-24 year.

Thank you.

Our guild Members have been busy

Here are a few of my latest quilts I have finished:

Can you say, "Roar" this was for my grandson's third birthday:

And this one is an Elizabeth Hartman baby size quilt I made as a promo for the store:

Sandra C.

This is the a quilt I gave to my daughter-in-law for Mother's Day.

It is a wall hanging pattern called Dance of the Dragonflies by JoAnn Hoffman which I adapted to fit the quilt.

I used heat and bond to apply the coloured sections and Clover iron-on bias tape for the stained glass look.

I stitched down all the coloured sections and the bias tape so I think it is secure enough to withstand handling of the quilt.

Community Quilts News - June 2023

Community Quilts has had a very successful year, with many donations to the organizations that we support. In order to fund these projects, we held a raffle in the fall and a fabric sale in February. The money raised from these enabled us to purchase batting and materials used to make the breast cancer kits.

There are 30 Breast Cancer Comfort Kits ready to be delivered to Breast Cancer Support in late June.

Deliveries to other groups will probably not resume until the fall. Until then, we will store any quilts we are given until they are needed.

After the request in the May newsletter for anyone willing to quilt flimsies, we have had several members volunteer to do this – thank you.

There are still breast cancer kits still available in the storage locker at the hall.

There is batting available for Community Quilt projects also in the storage locker and another roll is expected to arrive at the end of June.

Any quilts that are for us can still be left in the basket in the hall, although pickup of these might be a little sporadic during the summer.

I want to thank all the members who have supported Community Quilts this year – whether by making quilts and Breast Cancer Kits, buying raffle tickets and fabric, or donating your leftover bits of batting. It is very important to the success of Community Quilts and is VERY MUCH APPRECIATED!

And please buy some basket raffle tickets from Theresa – all the money raised will be used in Community Quilts projects.

Suggested Sizes for Community Quilts

Seniors (The Views) 40" x 50" or 45" square

Adult lap (Lilli House) 45" x 60"

Children' 40" x 50"

Quilts of Valour 60" x 80"

Senior Quilts – are a smaller size because they are easier to use with a wheelchair, and are given to women and men.

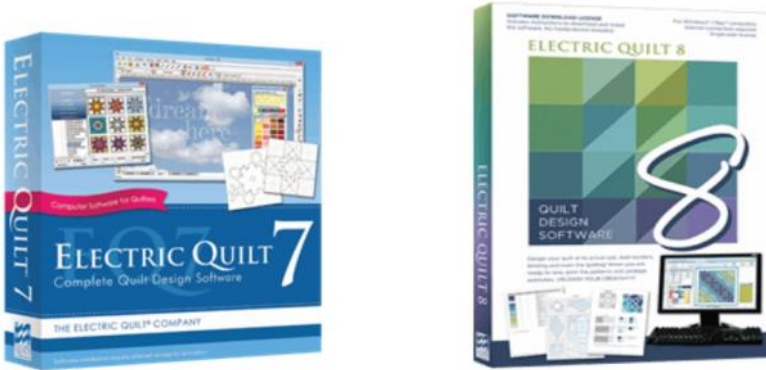

Transition Society (Lilli House) – mostly young women with children of all ages.

Quilts of Valour – please check with quiltsofvalour.ca website for suggestions

Possible Future Class

Does anyone have EQ7 or EQ8? EQ stands for Electric Quilt, a design program you download to your PC, Mac, or Laptop; where you can design your own Blocks and Quilts with a click of your mouse.

If you can click a 'mouse' you can use this software.

The math is done for you.

You will get exact cutting requirements and yardage of fabrics needed.

Create pieced blocks or applique blocks, the sky is the limit.

Feel free to watch this 2 and half minute video, it's very good.

May Program Presentation: All About Scraps

Scrap Management: Clare Ireson

Following on from the Scrap Management presentation at our May business meeting, these are the sources that gave me a starting point for processing my leftover fabric pieces and scraps. Karen Brown of Just Get it Done Quilts (www.justgetitdonequilts.com) has several excellent YouTube videos on scrap management: 10-15 minutes full of ideas, information and inspiration. My other source was 'How I organize all my scraps' on Tiffany's Quilting Life YouTube channel. It was a long and detailed video, but she got right to business. She processes a lot of fabric, so she has to be efficient.

Scrap management involves a purpose and a process. Think about how you like to quilt. What blocks do you want to make to use up the scraps? What size blocks do you like to work with? What pre cuts do you use? Which pre cuts do you never use?

I liked the idea of setting a timer, and planning an afternoon a month to work on a pile of fabric. Start by sorting by size, iron everything, straighten edges. Decide what will be the smallest size pieces you will keep and use.

Keep it simple and consistent. Once you've sorted out the larger pieces, cut scraps into 2-4 sized strips (e.g. 5" and 2.5" strips) or blocks (e.g. 3", 6" and 10") that work for you. Think about storing fabric as light/dark, warm/cool as well as colour.

Quilts from Scraps and Scrap Management: Sharon Hansen

Making a quilt with scraps is so satisfying and can really let you be creative. One suggestion I have is to pick a block like Jacobs Ladder or Churn Dash or split nine patch and make a few at a time and soon you will have enough blocks for a quilt either for charity or someone special. One of my favourites is the Mocha Swirl block in Scrap Basket Surprises, it only takes 2 fabrics in 2.5" strips for each block and you will be surprised how quickly you can get a few blocks sewn up.

Organizing by cutting your scraps into often used sizes: 5" and 2 1/2" strips, 10" squares, 5" and 2 1/2" squares. When they are organized by size it's easier to see what you have and the cutting is already done so you are ready to sew.

I also like to organize my scraps by color, themes, and designer. ie: children's, sports, Xmas, Fall/ Halloween.

I also organize by different types of fabric, cotton, batiks, flannels.

I have found several books that have given me inspiration to use up my scraps:

Simple Strategies for Block Swap Quilts #375 in our library.

Nickel Quilts and More Nickel Quilts - using 5" squares - in our library,

Scrap Basket Surprises and Scrap Basket Sensations by Kim Brackett in our library

Cut the Scraps, by Joan Ford

The quilts I displayed were Northern Comfort and Beach Cottage by Kim Brackett, and Road to Pineberry Trail by Holly Taylor for Moda, (also called Road to Oklahoma). Blocks were Northern Comfort and Mocha Swirl.

As an added incentive to try out some of these scrap management ideas, and the projects that you saw at the presentation, we are throwing out an 'It's a Scrap' Summer Challenge. We're asking you to make an item from your scraps to bring to the November business meeting for Sew and Tell. It doesn't have to be big and doesn't have to be quilted, but it does have to be made with scraps! There will be prizes! We look forward to seeing what you create.

CAMP HOMEWOOD RETREAT

Our next retreat is scheduled for October 18th – 22nd, 2023.

Sign-up will start at the June business meeting.

The cost per individual for the four days will range from $340. to $432., depending on the room you choose. These rates are currently an approximation as there is generally a rate increase each year starting with the October retreat.

The starting range includes the three non-updated private rooms in the guesthouse, as well as bunk style dorm rooms in the main lodge which sleep up to 7. However on average there are usually anywhere from 2 to 5 in these rooms. Individuals in these rooms have shared bathroom/shower facilities.

There is a separate handicapped washroom available to any that may require ease of access to toilet or shower.

There are also newer rooms available which sleep up to 3 and have their own washroom, including shower/tub. The cost of these rooms per person will depend on how many are sharing.

All prices include 3 meals a day, along with snacks in the evening consisting of cookies/squares, fruit, coffee, tea, and hot chocolate. The meals at Camp Homewood are plentiful, with lots of selections at each meal . . . you will never walk away hungry!

If you have never been to a retreat at Camp Homewood we urge you to give it a try. It is a lot of fun and a great way to get to know your fellow quilters. In the past we have seen a number of quilters who have attended retreat for the first time, and we continue to see more of them becoming regulars.

If you wish to sign-up or for further information please contact one of the retreat coordinators listed below. Our contact details can be located on the guild website under "retreats" or by viewing the membership list.

*A $50 deposit is required upon registration with the balance due the beginning of October.

We look forward to seeing all of our regulars as well as some first timers for the upcoming retreats. For those of you that plan ahead the spring retreat is booked for February 21st – 25th, 2024.

Workshop news

The Sew together bag was held on May 13. Ten enthusiastic students worked at the project, discovered Wonder tape (pros and cons), learned how easy zippers are sewn in this bag, and everyone produced a bag to be proud of, albeit not quite complete. Several are already planning to make another one!

Joan's Roll top bag on June 4, still has two spaces left! Last chance to get in on this class which likely won't be offered again for some time.

Pat Norrad held the first mini workshop on Thursday, May 11, with 10 attending in the morning session and a few more later in the day. The workshop committee views this as a resounding success and is very optimistic that this method of presenting techniques has enormous potential!

These sessions can truly present a learning opportunity for all members. Since the format is drop in, optional, no fee, and is held on a Thursday, there are few barriers to participation. We are accepting ideas for these mini workshops from members and potential presenters and hope to advertise these to our members via the newsletter, meeting nights and on Thursday by announcement.

HAW (Hands Across The Water)

Memories by Sheila Scrase

Submitted by Verna Power

The COMOX VALLEY SCHOOLHOUSE QUILTERS GUILD hosted a very successful Hands Across the Water – Gathering of the Guilds, in October.

Sheila Scrase recalls the very first Hands Across the Water held in 1989:

I was recently taking a trip down memory lane and I was inspired, once again, by my affiliation with such a wonderful pursuit as quilting. Our guild, in its infancy, realized there were many fellow quilters out there seeking information and inspiration regarding quilts. Our own guild members met at the Lake Trail Jr. Secondary school and were producing wonderful quilts. We began to wonder what other groups were doing; so one day I suggested we invite Powell River over for lunch and a Show and Tell. They were delighted and accepted the invitation. We provided the main course and they brought the cookies. There was no cost involved as I could open and close my rooms as the need arose. The display was in the textile room and the lunch was served in the foods room. It was great. Everyone was picked up and returned to the ferry; so from the moment they stepped foot on our side and the ritual handshakes took place, what has become a tradition was born – Hands Across the Water.

The next HAW may be in October 2023
in Powell River....stay tuned

Positively Postcards...Quilted Keepsakes to Save or Send

Bonnie Sabel and Louis-Philippe O'Donnell

Martingale & Company, 2007

Quilt guild library # 148

With summer fast approaching, who wants to be sewing a full size quilt? Why not try some postcard size quilts...they are small (4" x 6"), easy on your fabric stash, quick to make, portable, allow you to experiment, fun to make - what more could you want?

Fibre postcards fall into two categories, mailable fibre postcards and quilted postcards. Mailable postcards are made with the intention of being sent without an envelope and have a stiff inner core. Most often, these postcards are used as exchange cards within an organized group of 5 to 25 people and the stamps and postmarks are part of their appeal.

The second type of fibre postcards are 4" x 6" mini quilts with the look and feel of larger quilts. This type of postcard must be mailed in an envelope so the thickness and types of embellishments are only limited by your imagination. These mini quilts may also be turned into greeting cards or may be framed. Again, this type of postcard may be traded - a lovely reminder of another quilter and their work.

"Positively Postcards" is set out in an easy to follow order. A section on tools and supplies is followed by another chapter of general instructions for making quilted postcards. First rule? Have fun! You don't need to square up corners and have precise measurements...let your creativity bloom. To quote the authors "each experience of making a quilted postcard teaches us something and better equips us to tackle new creative-design challenges in the future".

Basic information on selecting fabrics for the postcard base is followed by directions for fussy cutting and fusing novelty prints. A fabric frame could enhance the featured "picture" on your postcard. Of course, embellishments on the postcards make them very special! Ribbon, quilting with special threads, buttons and beads all find places on quilted postcards ensuring they are "one of a kind". Since the authors expect you to use your own imagination and creativity, there is only one sample project to send you on your way. This project shows you how to make a quilted postcard, from start to finish. Very clear, full size color photos of the process insures you won't get lost.

Comox Valley Schoolhouse Quilters' Guild

Finally, a wonderful postcard gallery fills out the remainder of this book. Beginning with the first technique of using a novelty print for the postcard base, examples are given with descriptions of how the postcards were made. Fussy cut novelty prints (technique 3) are a lot of fun to view.

Note the use of beads and a charm added to Jeremiah Bullfrog (page 61). Fabric frames (technique 4) add a touch of elegance while postcards designed with vintage hankies (technique 5) bring us back to another use for those lovely lacey bits which are no longer used since Kleenex took over.

This book has been fun to review. I hope some of us will make fabric postcards on those hot, sunny summer days we are all looking forward to.

Have you seen the wonderful online demos that Huckleberry's staff have been doing? If you missed them check them out here.

All their videos are on their YouTube channel

Most people may already know this – but just in case

Huckleberry's have been doing some you-tube videos – some a demos of a new product or ruler – some are just tours of the store – for anyone who might be missing just the visual of shopping

SUNSHINE

I am so glad to see more quilters coming out each week for sew days. It seems as if all our precautions have paid off as I have not heard of any members that have been very ill.

Please do not forget to call or email me if you have heard of anyone that needs some sunshine.

Thank you so much for the donations of the cards. We are grateful for the card donations, and it makes my job easier. We have a good supply of cards for now. Don't forget to send along the info so I can send along a note of cheer.

It has come to my attention that some members are needing assistance in getting out to a meeting. Please let the executive know so we hopefully find some help for you.

Thanks, stay safe and healthy
Florence
