BEE DAY

Come join the fun of a quilting bee day. This will be at the guild hall every 4th Thursday of the month. The first was held on November 24th with pattern and fabric supplied by the guild for this project.

Each 4th Thursday a new pattern will be supplied at the guild for you. You can make a block with supplied fabric and then use your own fabric to build a block, perhaps two, one for you and one for the Community Quilts quilt.

Hopefully some of us can do sashing, binding, quilting so that we can present a completed quilt. Patterns will only be supplied on the day at the hall since the intent is to do this together.

Come have some fun, get to know fellow guild members better, perhaps learn a new skill or enhance one.

If you have any questions contact Debbi, Peggy or Janis.

Your president

Debbie

From the Library Committee

We are drowning in books!

Our library is a wonderful resource but we now have over 800 titles as well as videos, templates etc., and we do need to downsize.

We plan to spend time this summer going through the items to check which ones have not been circulated much or not at all (not counting Covid times) and we will reduce our inventory.

The shelves are very crowded and we need the space! We will also update our binders creating new cards etc.

To this end – we need all library books etc., back to the hall.

PLEASE RETURN ALL LIBRARY BOOKS, TEMPLATES, AND OTHER ITEMS BY THURSDAY, JUNE 15TH.

The library will therefore be closed from then through July – it will reopen when the task is complete!

Thank you for your cooperation!

ELECTIONS

Elections are coming soon and the Nomination Committee would love to hear from you. We are looking for interest in Executive Positions including Vice President and President.

Because there are over 100 active members, it's almost impossible for the Nomination Committee to approach each person individually, so if you are the slightest bit interested in becoming more involved with the Executive, or one of the many committees, please touch base with us as soon as possible. We'd love to hear from you.

Remember the Quilt Display in June which is not happening?

Well we live and we learn. Everyone did so much work in preparing for this event and now despite the sad cancellation, we can all breath a sigh of relief and we can entertain ourselves with other activities.

Except for one small detail...

As part of it all the hard workers are the Raffle Basket Wranglers, Sharon Hanson, Terry Hooper and myself, and the other members of the Guild who so graciously donated items to these said baskets. We have Six baskets with a variety of themes, totalling over $2300.00.

A letter has been sent to the businesses who have donated, explaining the change to a one-day event and that we will carry on with the Raffle in order to support our Community Quilts Program.

The license has been submitted and tickets will be printed. The sale of these tickets will take place from May 15, 2023 until June 29, Thursday at the Guild.

We had discussions with the village to assure that we will have two tables located at the hall, on the day of the original show, Saturday June 10. As well we are trying to garner a table to sell during the May Day parade, May 20th from 10 am till 4 pm.

Since these Baskets have become a stand-alone project, without benefit of the show, we will need our members to volunteer to sell these tickets both at the 125th celebration and the May Day parade. As you may also suspect we would like all the members to graciously volunteer to sell tickets on their own time to friends and family.

Let's make this Raffle a major success despite the setback of no show.

The subject will be broached again at our monthly meeting May 4th. I do not expect the tickets to be available at that time but will endeavour to distribute them asap.

Quilting with one arm

At the end of February, I fell on ice and fractured my right shoulder in 2 places and my right tibia in four places. I am right hand dominant. I was told no walking, no weight on right foot – just wheelchair. My first thought was --- oooo – maybe I can get some quilting done. Nope – one handed quilting was not an option for me. So, as I sat here for seven weeks so far, I made a list of tools/tricks I could try as I get mobility back. I have not tried any, so do research before you purchase any!

The obvious one is to move my sewing machines to the dining room table on the ground floor, but since I need two hands to sew quilt seams accurately and then iron – that was a no for my current limitations, but maybe soon.

Electric Scissors or Electric Rotary cutter – handily there is a youtuber who compares the two – my take away is that the electric scissors may work for me, but the electric rotary cutter would just wreck fabric (operator error most likely LOL)

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6r0YbXK1EuA&ab_channel=BlueprintDIY

Ergonomic cutter Fiskars – I have this one and you can find it at local stores (google Fiskars rotary cutter ergonomic)

Martelli Rotary Cutter – they are available for right and left hand dominant sewers. This looks promising and I may do some more research on it. What intrigues me about it is that you would hold your hand/arm entirely different, and I may be able to cut sitting down. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=goLYkAKWjbg>

Fabric Cutting devices – I am not at the point of wanting to purchase one, but if my surgeon doesn't give me the go ahead to start moving or I need shoulder surgery for the fractures, I may revisit that. I have only looked at two so far.

Accuquilt – the electric one would certainly be easy to use with my mobility issues, however, it is quite pricey. Another draw back would be that I would continue to need to buy the diecuts. A selling point is that I can cut backing, batting as well for quilt as you go.

Brother scan and cut – It has a learning curve with the technology, but I am going to do more research on this as it will certainly cut all sorts of shapes and sizes. A drawback is that I can't see how it would be able to do WOF. Here is a great youtube video to start researching. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=a36Oa6X-M_c

Community Quilts News – May 2023

Heather and Joan have been busy – delivering 20 quilts for seniors to The Views last month. The next 10 senior quilts will be finding a home at Cumberland Lodge.

Coby and Lois took 18 baby quilts to the Public Health Unit on April 2.

Sandy has been getting quilts ready to be delivered to The Transition Society. For the past few months we have been putting labels on the quilts that we donate to various community groups. To make it easier for members to attach labels to quilts before they donate them to us, we are going to be leaving some labels in a baggie that will be attached to the Community Quilts basket in the storage room at the hall. Or please contact Sandy Schille for some. We would REALLY appreciate it if the quilts are labelled before they are given to us.

Are there any guild members who would like to do some quilting for us?

Quite often we are given flimsies and we could use some help in getting these quilted. The backing and batting would be supplied and we would do the binding. The machine quilting would not need to be fancy or perfect – this might be a good way to practice a new technique! Please contact Myra or Nerissa if you can help us out.

We ordered batting in January and it was supposed to be delivered sometime in March. I contacted the supplier when it didn't arrive and found out it is a victim of worldwide shipping problems - they had problems getting a truck to get it from the Hobb's factory in Texas. The last update was that a truck had been found and it was now in transit to Canada. So hopefully we will get it in a few weeks. As soon as it arrives it will go to the hall.

Suggested Sizes for Community Quilts

Seniors (The Views) 40" x 50" or 45" square

Adult lap (Lilli House) 45" x 60"

Children' 40" x 50"

Quilts of Valour 60" x 80"

Senior Quilts – are a smaller size because they are easier to use with a wheelchair, and are given to women and men.

Transition Society (Lilli House) – mostly young women with children of all ages.

Quilts of Valour – please check with quiltsvalour.ca website for suggestions

Comfort Quilts Continued...

Sandy delivered 17 quilts to The Transition Society – 11 adult, 4 boys and 2 girls on April 19 and had this update:

Lilli House is expanding with the addition of Darry's Place. A second stage shelter with 40 units that should be opening in May 2023 when staffing is complete.

Third stage housing is in the planning stage which will be permanent units based on income.

They were so appreciative of the quilts I delivered today. I marvel at all the love that I see in each quilt delivered by me.

PS please remember to add a label to your finished pieces. I will be leaving labels attached to the Community Quilt bin so it is easier for members to grab one and sew it on.

Keep on sewing,
Sandy Schille

May Program

Each of us has fabric scraps and at the meeting on May 4 Sharon Hansen, Christene Evanochko, Colleen Barker and Clare Ireson are going to give us Part I of 'Scraps'.

Foolproof Art Quilting

Katie Fowler

C + T Publishing 2022

Not in the guild library

I've been a little sidetracked by a different kind of book this month. When I purchased 'Foolproof Art Quilting' for myself, I hoped for insight in how to get out of my 'quilters block' which has plagued me for some time. Well, not only did the book help a lot, but even set me to thinking of trying things I never would have thought of doing with fabric, paint and thread.

Have you run across the name Katie Fowler? I find her name popping up a lot these days. Katie is a creativity coach who revels in the 'creativity process for the sake of the process'. "Perfection vs excellence" - well, when you see her work, perfection is not at the top of her list, however, she had a solo show in Houston in 2022.

Her book, 'Foolproof Art Quilting', recently published, is brim full of useful information presented in an easily understood way. By using the analogy of Alice and her adventures after going down the rabbit hole, we are given the option of becoming an art quilter, or not. How do you handle creative crushers (fear, doubt etc)? Perfectionism and comparison are also powerful blocks to becoming creative.

Like all artists, the quilter does need to understand guidelines in order to be successful. Color theory is of utmost importance but is a 'tool, not a rule', and as perhaps with shape or form, a way to engage the viewer and draw them into your quilt. Again, principals of design (balance, emphasis etc.) help produce a cohesive work, pleasing to the eye.

Materials Katie uses are likely not in everyone's tool kit. Fabric paints and fabric markers, Shiva oil sticks and Derwent Intense pencils all have a use. Plain white cotton is the canvas on which you draw and paint.

The process of producing art is shown in steps as Katie draws and paints, explaining why she is doing things as she goes along. And a surprise at the end..... don't be afraid to cut up your quilt and reassemble it - you will likely like it much better! Preferable to having it sit in the back of the closet for years.

I looked up 'Katie Fowler quilter' on the internet, and found a short video "Inside Fool-proof Art Quilting by Katie Fowler" in which she shows you the complete contents of the book. She is also featured on m.youtube.com with Alex Anderson if you want to find out more about her work.

I have finished piecing a Block of the Week Harvest Gatherings Quilt which started last fall.

It can be found on the Piecing the Past Quilts website.

I didn't put on the borders as it wouldn't have fit in my hanging space! It is now out to be professionally quilted.

CAMP HOMEWOOD RETREAT

Our next retreat is scheduled for October 18th – 22nd, 2023.

Sign-up will start at the June business meeting.

The cost per individual for the four days will range from $340. to $432., depending on the room you choose. These rates are currently an approximation as there is generally a rate increase each year starting with the October retreat.

The starting range includes the three non-updated private rooms in the guesthouse, as well as bunk style dorm rooms in the main lodge which sleep up to 7. However on average there are usually anywhere from 2 to 5 in these rooms. Individuals in these rooms have shared bathroom/shower facilities.

There is a separate handicapped washroom available to any that may require ease of access to toilet or shower.

There are also newer rooms available which sleep up to 3 and have their own washroom, including shower/tub. The cost of these rooms per person will depend on how many are sharing.

All prices include 3 meals a day, along with snacks in the evening consisting of cookies/squares, fruit, coffee, tea, and hot chocolate. The meals at Camp Homewood are plentiful, with lots of selections at each meal . . . you will never walk away hungry!

If you have never been to a retreat at Camp Homewood we urge you to give it a try. It is a lot of fun and a great way to get to know your fellow quilters. In the past we have seen a number of quilters who have attended retreat for the first time, and we continue to see more of them becoming regulars.

If you wish to sign-up or for further information please contact one of the retreat coordinators listed below. Our contact details can be located on the guild website under "retreats" or by viewing the membership list.

*A $50 deposit is required upon registration with the balance due the beginning of October.

We look forward to seeing all of our regulars as well as some first timers for the upcoming retreats. For those of you that plan ahead the spring retreat is booked for February 21st – 25th, 2024.

Camp Homewood – February 2023

A great time was had by all in attendance at our February 2023 Camp Homewood retreat. With 33 ladies in attendance it was a busy but relaxing time. Lots of quilting, socializing, games, eating, and even walks or hikes by a number of participants. Wednesday was spent just settling in, socializing and quilting.

Thursday night we played the left/right/centre dice game for 10" squares. The winner of the 10" squares was Linda Bollinger, so if you are looking for burgundy or grey fabrics you now know where to look.

Friday was the dice game again playing with buttons, purchased for $1 each. The winner of all the buttons, Laura Flaman, was able to turn them in for the cash, a total of over $80.

Each night after dinner we had a draw with the winners each receiving a nice package of 5 coordinating fat quarters. The winners were: Sharon Latham, Debbie Maxwell, Brenda Levirs, and Sam Crewe.

Saturday night was the conclusion of our big silent auction. The participants outdid themselves in bringing a great supply of quality items. We had 4 surprise items in sealed gift bags again. Those items were a huge success, with Barb Messer having the winning bid on the special bag containing a $25 gift certificate from Island Sewing Centre, along with other quilting items.

All in all we feel this retreat was a great success. With funds collected for staff tips and what was raised in the silent auction we were able to present Camp Homewood with $900. to be used for staff group activities.

We now look forward to our next retreats which are October 18-22nd, 2023 and February 21-25th, 2024.

Mystery Workshop Quilts

Workshop Report – April 2023

I am finally back from my vacation in Needles California. Thank you to Jean Lewis for her tireless work toward this committee in my absence! Also welcome to Sandra Longland who has joined our group.

We have met twice and are learning the ropes. We have discussed workshops options for this calendar year.

To review, On May 13 my Sew Together Bag, which only has two open spots, is a go. I have made this bag at least 7 times, and while making my Bonza bag, I learned a few tips for this class. I just completed another bag to refresh my memory on the directions. I did make a few errors, which I had to rip out or correct, which was awesome because then I can warn you of what NOT TO DO.

I frequently say, you learn more from your mistakes than if you did it correctly the first time.

This class not only produces the bag, but teaches several techniques, which I suspect is why our industrious president signs up for so many classes. I truly admire her for that. One technique is how to sew in the 4 zippers which is, in my humble opinion, very easy with my tips. Machine binding is also a technique that I use, to a fault, and will coach each participant.

I guess the point of this rant is to encourage all of you to sign up when you can for a workshop, if only to learn a technique that you can use in the future.

Joan Johnson's Roll Top Bag is scheduled for June.

We are thinking about trying mini workshops that involve learning a technique. These would be free and held on a Thursday. More info to follow on that as we firm up details of this concept.

For the fall, we are looking at a free motion Feathers workshop offered by Vicky Dods from Nanaimo. This class had a wait list but was cancelled because of Covid.

Our Zoom workshop held last fall, was well received, and has had renewed interest. We are considering our options and might join a guild from Saskatchewan in their zoom class.

To register, do so on meeting night, or on a Thursday with one of the committee members.

SUNSHINE

I am so glad to see more quilters coming out each week for sew days. It seems as if all our precautions have paid off as I have not heard of any members that have been very ill.

Please do not forget to call or email me if you have heard of anyone that needs some sunshine.

Thank you so much for the donations of the cards. We are grateful for the card donations, and it makes my job easier. We have a good supply of cards for now. Don't forget to send along the info so I can send along a note of cheer.

It has come to my attention that some members are needing assistance in getting out to a meeting. Please let the executive know so we hopefully find some help for you.
