President's Message

As I write this, I can tell you that our quilt show opens tomorrow. It was a long day today and my feet are tired. I should not complain. It was a fantastic day. What started as a large empty room became a very truly wonder filled showcase of the talent within our guild.

I got to the hall early to deliver my entries to the show. Many people had signed up for set up and our first task was to "bucket brigade" the 200 pieces of frames and rods out of our familiar work room, up the stairs and into the upper room. Slowly this brigade grew to 16 people. In under 30 minutes, all the pieces were ready for reconstructing the frames and sails. After a short lesson on how to put the 6 pieces of the frame and the sail together, we put 30 units together. They almost touch the ceiling.

With my floor plan in hand, and helpers with tape measure and masking tape, we marked where the corners and ends of frames were to sit. Frames were then carried to each location and the layout began to become a reality. Zap straps and sandbags served to make it all sturdy and untippable. Metal rods and their hardware were tightened and chains, S hooks and large C hooks readied for quilt hanging.

With lunchtime approaching, I directed all to have a lunch break and to resume at noon. Meanwhile Diana's entry-check in crew brought the 100 entries upstairs for hanging. During the morning, the Boutique group, Raffle Table, and Community Quilts also set up their areas. The Tea room crew, Raffle Baskets and Small Worx had to wait until their areas were free and available to complete their setup.

The Quilt hanging is a huge puzzle with largest quilts being hung first, medium next and then small quilts in the small spaces left. With a critical eye, quilts draped on rods were swapped out when they did not go well beside others around them. A Canadian theme greets guests at the first frame they will see. Items not suited to hanging were displayed on two tables. The men and one lady, on ladders, climbed up and down repeatedly as they hung the metal rods via S hooks, to the chains hanging from the frames.

The variety and quality of work is impressive. I hope you had the opportunity to enjoy it!

But, what impressed me the most, was the hard-working crew that I had the pleasure to work with. Despite difficult, and physical work, you never heard any one complain as they seemed to enjoy building this masterpiece of a show, just as much as I did. Several people completed their tasks and came to me asking where else could they help. OMG! Don't they say "To make your self look good, surround yourself with quality people" Well we have that in spades!. I have not singled out any one individual in this write up because they are too numerous to list here. You know who you are and I would like to thank each and everyone who had even a small part in contributing to this cause. You do our guild proud!

Raelene Robertson

WOW! What a show!

We're so grateful to everyone who helped make our "Sesquicentennial Quilt Show" such a success. To the Committee Leaders for all their planning & strategizing and to the Committee members who helped put those plans in place. Thanks also to the quilt husbands (& son) who assisted with set-up & take-down.

The new layouts, both upstairs & down were very successful with more room in both venues for people to view the quilts (upstairs) & visit & shop (downstairs). The vendors were very happy with their sales & all of them asked to be invited back to the next show. Thanks to Anne & Frank McCullough for providing a B & B (& ukulele lessons!) for Carola.

From set up to take-down and all things in between THANK YOU, THANK YOU!!
Congratulations to:

- #1 Viewer's Choice & the CQA Rosette winner Margaret Letkeman
- #2 Viewer's Choice winner Jan Hill
- #3 Viewer's Choice winner Joan Boyle

Book Review

Cozy Modern Quilts

23 Easy Pieced Projects to Bust Your Stash

Kim Schaefer

C + T Publishing 2009

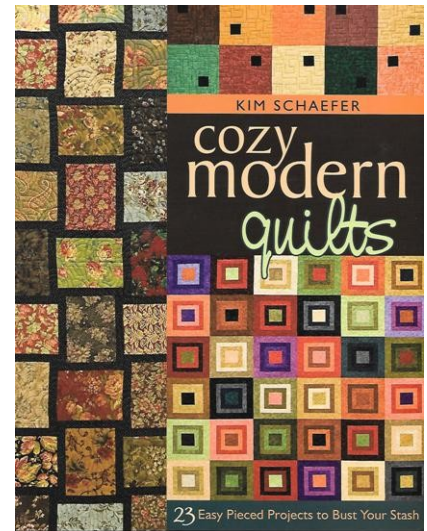

Guild library #249

Kim Schaefer is the author of several quilting books, with this book being the simplest. Don't be deceived - it is a most engaging book to read, has wonderful photos and can be an inspiration for a quick and easy summer quilt.

The book starts with a short overview of "how to make a quilt", but soon gets into specific projects. Very simple rotary cutting of squares and rectangles produces stunning quilts of varying sizes. No curved piecing or applique here.

Through the use of simple shapes, clear diagrams for piecing, and suggestions of ways to vary the patterns, you can make the projects in short order. The idea of using a border makes for a more traditional quilt, while borderless gives a contemporary feeling.

The book consists mainly of projects, starting with lap quilts and going down in size to placemats. Although there are 5 table runner patterns, Kim assumes that a wall or lap quilt can be easily downsized to a table runner (or upsized to make a larger quilt). The possibilities are endless. This book came out before Kaffe Fasset prints came on the market, but the 'color splash table runner' (page 50) would look fabulous in some of his fabrics.

The overall feel of a quilt can be changed dramatically by color choice. Using the same block, Kim shows us how a traditional feel is achieved through using soft classic combinations such as neutrals or blue/brown and tan. The same block becomes very modern when made in bright florals or rich jewel tones.

A thumbs up for this book if you are searching for a summer project. Lots to look at, think about, and make a decision! Even if the 6 placemats on page 55 don't inspire you (all being neutral), think of them in bright colors, ready for a bbq - what a great way to spend a summer evening.

Lois Warner

Quilt Show Volunteers—Thank You

Thank you to all the volunteers who helped make the quilt show an amazing event.

From set up to take down, the excellent goodies, the ladies in the kitchen and the tea room, the admissions and raffle tables, the white glove attendants, and the vendors all came together and produced an extraordinary show.

We were able to show case our talents in the display of quilts and quilted items for all our charities.

The co chairpersons: Verna and Nerissa out did themselves again, thanks ladies.

Florence

Comox Valley Exhibition (CVEx) Quilt Show

August 25, 26 and 27, 2017

Right now our focus is volunteers.

Gail Hampton has volunteer sign-up sheets available each Thursday at the OAP Hall for people to sign up for shifts at the show.

Please, if you can spare the time for these dates, volunteer for some aspect of the CVEx quilt show.

We realize that you have just volunteered your time at the Schoolhouse Quilt Show but please show your generosity and sign up one more time.

Let's not forget about quilt show entries. CVEx is not printing the Entry Book this year but forms can be downloaded from their website: www.cvex.ca.

Also, there will be quilt forms printed and available at the OAP Hall every quilting Thursday. Completed forms can be given to Judy Morrison or dropped off at the CVEx Office or mailed in.

BC Fairs has a category that may be of interest to quilters. It is for a Mug Rug, maximum size is 4"x 7" and is open to all techniques, not just quilting. The theme is Canada's 150th Birthday. If you win at CVEx your entry goes on to the Provincial Competition and the winner there receives a cheque.

Thank you.
Judy Morrison

CAMP HOMEWOOD RETREAT

The time has come to sign up for our next retreat which is scheduled for October 18th – 22nd, 2017. We have found the four day retreat provides us with lots of valued time for sewing and socializing. Please note this retreat will run from 11am Wednesday to 11am Sunday. Sign up will start at the June business meeting. If you do not feel you can attend for a full four days please do not let that deter you from registering as it is a possibility for some of you to attend for three days only.

Depending on sign-up numbers we will also have the option of opening up the guesthouse for more private rooms. For further details concerning the guesthouse please speak to one of the retreat coordinators listed below. The cost per individual for the four days will range from $252. to $305., depending on the room you choose. The starting range of $252. is a bunk style dorm room which sleeps up to 7, however on average there are usually anywhere from 2 to 5 in these rooms. Individuals in these rooms have shared bathroom/shower facilities. There is a separate handicapped washroom available to any that may require ease of access to toilet or shower. There are also newer rooms available which sleep up to 3 and have their own washroom, including shower/tub. These rooms are either $287. with 3 sharing the room or $305. with only 2 sharing. All prices include 3 meals a day along with snacks in the evening consisting of cookies/squares, fruit, coffee, tea, and hot chocolate. The meals at Camp Homewood are excellent . . . and you will never walk away hungry!

If you have never been to a retreat at Camp Homewood we urge you to give it a try. It is a lot of fun and a great way to get to know your fellow quilters. Over the past couple of years we have seen a number of quilters who have attended retreat for the first time, and we continue to see more of them becoming regulars . If you wish to sign-up or for further information please contact one of the retreat coordinators listed below. Our contact details can be located on the guild website under “retreats” or by viewing the membership list.

For those of you who plan ahead the dates for our spring 2018 retreat are February 14th – 18th, 2018. We look forward to seeing some new members as well as all of our regulars at one of the upcoming retreats.

PLACEMATS FOR MEALS ON WHEELS

Since we are having the Quilt Show in May this year, we have decided, with the approval of the executive, that we will delay the placemats collection for Meals on Wheels from the June business meeting to the September business meeting.

We are having 1 more day for cutting kits for placemats for Meals on Wheels, the Christmas Hamper program, and the Soroptipaks for the Transition House. We plan to have another "cutting bee" on June 8th at 10:30.

We have donated fabric for fronts & back...both Christmas, non Christmas...plus batting.

All are welcome to assist in the "cutting bee", many hands make light work & we could really use the help.

Please feel free to take a placemat kit at the business meeting or on any Thursday.

The kits will be stored in our storage room in the laundry basket marked "PLACEMATS" and finished placemats can be left in the same basket.

Thanks,
Sharon Latham

June 2017 WORKSHOP NEWS

The beginner applique class with Jan Hill this past weekend was a great opportunity for participants to get started on machine appliqueing.

Thanks, Jan, for getting everyone started!

Our next class is in September 2017 and was announced at the May 2017 meeting. It's the SEW TOGETHER BAG with Debbie and this class is already full!

But we are taking a waiting list so if you'd like to be on it, just let one of us know. If we get at least 12 – our minimum for any class – we may ask Deb to do another class for this popular bag.

Otherwise, we are now completing our year end report and planning for the fall. We have some good ideas to work with – thanks to the membership – so we'll see what we can do for you!

Remember – workshops are a great way to not only learn something new, but to meet members you might not otherwise see at sewing Thursdays or meetings!

Your workshop committee,
Eva Hansen, Lynda Reid, Bonnie Smith

Volunteer Opportunity—Newsletter Editor

Are you looking for a challenging, exciting volunteer position with our guild. Consider taking over the Newsletter Editor position in September. This is a fun, exciting and sometimes challenging 'dare I say JOB' that I have had the pleasure of doing for quite a few years now.

It is time for some new ideas, perhaps you have some.

If you are interested please contact me (Hope) at the guild or via this email editor@schoolhousequilters.com for more information.

I usually spend about a minimum of 5 hours a month putting the articles (contributed by members) plus the advertising together. Our newsletter goes out from September to June (10 issues).

Skills required would be a minimum of the following:

- Extensive knowledge using software, the current newsletter is done in Microsoft Publisher but could be done in any software that can create the current format and able to save to a pdf file for publication.
- Knowledge of sizing and manipulating graphics files that our advertisers and contributors send in. Formats include jpg, pdf, word docx, png, excel and other formats.
- Ability to communicate via email with our advertisers and article contributors as well as our printing company.
- Able to meet deadlines.

Sounds like fun, it is so think about it and let me know. You would need to be able to do a mock up for practice for the September deadline with my help of course.

Hope
